Re: Complaint Against National Republican Senatorial Committee

Dear Mr. Noble:

This letter constitutes a complaint alleging violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("FECA" or the "Act"), 2 U.S.C. §§ 431 et seq., and related regulations of the Federal Election Commission ("FEC" or the "Commission"), 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.1 et seq., by the National Republican Senatorial Committee ("NRSC"). This complaint is made on behalf of Senator Max Baucus and his campaign organization, "Friends of Max Baucus '96".

On or about April 16, 1996, respondents prepared and paid for certain radio advertising containing the copy attached as Exhibit "A". On or about April 25, 1996, respondents prepared and paid for certain radio advertising containing the copy attached as Exhibit "B". On or about May 6, 1996, respondents prepared and paid for certain radio advertising containing the copy attached as Exhibit "C". On or about May 10, 1996, respondents prepared and paid for certain television advertising containing the copy attached as Exhibit "D".

According to the controversial advertising campaign report submitted in connection with the respondents' ad, the ads were for the purpose of "The defeat of Senator Max Baucus on his re-election campaign for 1996." The copy is contained in Exhibit "E".

Lawrence M. Noble, Esq.
May 24, 1996

On or about this same time, the respondents prepared and paid for radio advertising for the purpose of electing Dennis Rehberg to the U.S. Senate. The copy and portions of the public file is contained in Exhibit "F".

The newly-filed FEC reports from the NRSC do not attribute any of the costs of producing and running these advertisements to its coordinated expenditure limit under 441a(d) of the Act. As of May 22, 1996, the NRSC has spent in excess of $100,000 in producing and airing the above advertisements.

The FEC has consistently held that party expenditure naming a clearly identified candidate and containing an "electioneering message" must be counted by the party against the expenditure limit imposed by 441a(d) of the Act.

See e.g. Advisory Opinions 1984-15, 1985-14.

Moreover, the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit, in FEC v. Colorado Republican Federal Campaign Committee, 59 F.3d 1015 (10th Cir. 1995), recently ruled that advertisements, like the ones paid for by the respondents in this case, must be counted and reported against the committee's § 441a(d) expenditure limit.

The NRSC ads fall well within the definition of an "electioneering message." As evidenced by the Controversial Advertising Campaign Report submitted to KRTV in Great Falls, NRSC admits the purpose of the ads is to advocate the defeat of Senator Max Baucus.

The ads are not "issue advertising" as claimed by the NRSC because none of the issues contained in the ads were before the Senate for a vote during the time the ads were aired immediately prior to, or immediately after, the airing of the ads.

Not coincidentally, Senator Baucus's opponent in the 1996 U.S. Senate election met with the NRSC chairman, Senator Alfonse D'Amato, on July 18, 1995. The clipping is contained in Exhibit "G".

Lawrence M. Noble, Esq.

On October 24, 1995, Lt. Governor Rehberg attended a fundraiser in Washington, D.C., hosted by five Republican U.S. Senators, two of whom, Senators Burns and Kempthorne, have served on the steering committee of the NRSC. The invitation is contained in Exhibit "H".

On March 21, 1996, Lt. Governor Rehberg attended a fundraiser in Washington, D.C., held at the headquarters of the NRSC. The invitation is contained in Exhibit "I".

On May 1, 1996, Lt. Governor Rehberg called into a radio talk show in Billings. He said he was in Washington, D.C., to meet with the NRSC. The transcript of that portion of the show is contained in Exhibit "J".

The NRSC is further violating § 441a(d) by spending non-federal funds on the advertisements. A copy of an order from Multi Media Services for NRSC radio advertising is attached as Exhibit "K".

The April 30, 1996, NRSC FEC report shows that payments to Multi Media Services were made partially with federal funds and partially with non-federal funds. A copy of the relevant portion of the NRSC April 30th FEC report is attached as Exhibit "L".

The standard adopted by the Tenth Circuit is directly applicable, here. There, the court held that "any reasonable reading of (the ad) which included the notation of Republican party sponsorship, would leave the reader (or listener) with the impression that the Republican party sought to "diminish" public support for (a democratic candidate) and "garner support" for the unnamed Republican nominee." 59 F.3d at 1023. Based on these facts, the court held that the ad "unquestionably contained an electioneering message."

As in the Tenth Circuit case, the ads at issue, here, include the same "notation of Republican party sponsorship" as did the Colorado ads. Further, the ads in question, here, would unquestionably leave the viewer with the impression that the Republican party wished to "garner support" for Mr. Rehberg and "diminish" public support for Senator Baucus. On these facts, as in the Colorado Republican case, there is no question that the respondents' expenditures should have been reported and subject to the limits of § 441a(d). Indeed, the controversial campaign report filed with the ad unequivocally characterizes the purpose to be "the defeat of Senator Max Baucus on his re-election campaign for 1996."

In light of this clear violation, the commission should conduct a prompt and complete investigation to determine the scope of the violation. Moreover, because of the exigencies related to the advertisements in question and the up-coming election, the obvious harm done will be complete by the time the commission has the opportunity to investigate and deal with this question. Therefore, it is respectfully demanded that the commission immediately go to a court of competent jurisdiction to get injunctive relief preventing the respondents from continuing these clear violations.

At the same time, the commission should conduct a prompt and complete investigation and impose the stiffest civil penalty allowed for what is clearly a blatant flouting of the law. That investigation should also include a determination of whether other entities, including Dennis Rehberg, local party committees and any other entity, knowingly and wilfully participated in a scheme to violate the FEC's provisions related to coordinated expenditures by the respondent.

Please advise at your earliest convenience any further information you may need in connection with this complaint.

Sincerely,

NEW GOP ADS: BAUCUS SHOULD HEED MONTANANS ON TERM LIMITS

NRSC COMMENCES MONTANA RADIO CAMPAIGN URGING BAUCUS TO VOTE FOR TERM LIMITS
WHEN MEASURE COMES BEFORE SENATE

Washington, DC — The National Republican Senatorial Committee today commenced a Montana radio campaign urging Senator Max Baucus to heed the wishes of Montanans by voting to support term limits when the measure is considered on the floor of the United States Senate.

The following sixty-second radio spot, produced for the NRSC by River Bank Inc., will air in markets throughout the state of Montana:

"Liberal Max Baucus voted to raise his own pay, then voted to raise our taxes. He was wrong. While working families are having a tough time making ends meet here in Montana, Max Baucus is back in Washington giving himself a big payraise, then voting to raise our taxes.

"Max Baucus increased his pay by more than $23,000, then increased our taxes by more than $2,600 per family. That's an outrage. Pay raises... higher taxes. That's not Montana — but it is Max Baucus.

"Soon the Senate will vote on term limits — and the people of Montana support it. But not Max Baucus. In fact, he's already opposed term limits. It's just what you would expect from a Senator who's been in Washington for twenty-one long, liberal years.

"Call liberal Max Baucus. Tell him he was wrong to vote himself a big payraise, then vote to raise our taxes. Tell him it's time to vote for term limits."

GOP ADS: BAUCUS SHOULD BACK BALANCED BUDGET ON SENATE FLOOR

NRSC COMMENCES MONTANA RADIO CAMPAIGN OUTLINING
BAUCUS LIBERAL RECORD OF TAXING AND SPENDING

Washington, DC - The following sixty-second radio spot, produced for the NRSC by River Bank Inc., will begin airing in markets today throughout the state of Montana:

Anchor: You already know that liberal Max Baucus voted to raise his own pay by $23,000 then voted to raise your taxes by more than $2,600 a family.

But did you know that in the 31 long liberal years that Baucus has been in Washington, our debt skyrocketed to $5 trillion.

It's a fact.

And still liberal Max Baucus refuses to consistently vote for a real balanced budget.

Instead, he's voted to spend billions more on wasteful government spending.

That's right. Billions more.

Liberal Max Baucus even voted to spend our taxdollars to pay for an alpine slide in Puerto Rico and a casino in Connecticut.

That's not Montana. But it is Max Baucus.

Call liberal Max Baucus at (800) 352-6106. Tell him to stop wasting our hard earned money. Tell him to vote for Congress' balanced budget plan.

And the national debt has skyrocketed [piano] to five trillion dollars.

What have we gotten from Baucus's 21 long liberal years?

More taxes and more debt.

[percussion] Liberal Baucus voted for five of the largest tax increases in American history.

In one vote alone, he increased taxes on Montana families by $2600 dollars a year.

Baucus even voted to raise taxes on social security, small businesses and gasoline.

Rehberg seeks funds in Washington

HELENA (AP) — Lt. Gov. Dennis Rehberg is in Washington, D.C., this week seeking political and financial support for his campaign for the Republican U.S. Senate nomination.

"I'm introducing myself to people interested in the race because they want to know who I am," said Rehberg, who is running for the seat held by Democrat Max Baucus. "I'll tell them who I am, what I stand for and why I think I can be good senator for Montana."

In a telephone interview, he said he had meetings planned with prominent Republican senators, including Sen. Alfonse D'Amato of New York, chairman of the National Republican Senatorial Committee.

Rehberg arrived in the capital Saturday night and will return to Montana Thursday.

Double duty:

The lieutenant governor visits D.C. to attend a conference and raise funds for his Senate bid

By CHARLES S. JOHNSON
Missoulian State Bureau

HELENA — Republican Lt. Gov. Dennis Rehberg is in Washington, D.C., early this week attending a national business conference and raising money for his 1996 campaign for the U.S. Senate seat held by Democrat Max Baucus.

Rehberg said leaders of the National Federation of Independent Business personally invited him to attend the meeting because of what he said is Baucus' poor record in supporting issues important to small business. The federation has more than 9,000 members in Montana.

The trip to Washington is being paid for entirely by his campaign and himself, Rehberg said.

As an elected official, Rehberg has no vacation time. But as lieutenant governor, Rehberg said he has put in plenty of 50- and 60-hour weeks and worked lots weekends, so he sees no problem with his making the trip, despite Democratic Party criticism.

"Nobody has ever accused Dennis Rehberg of not putting in a day's work and a day's pay," he said. "People are getting their money's worth from this lieutenant governor."

As for Democrats' criticism of him conducting campaign business on work days, Rehberg said, "I never said I wasn't going to spend time on this campaign, any more than Max Baucus said he wasn't going to spend time on the campaign."

Rehberg said he will campaign, while still putting in the hours as lieutenant governor, and asked whether Baucus would make a commitment he will not campaign between now and 1996.

After he announced his candidacy in Kalispell June 23, Rehberg told the Missoulian State Bureau he would confine his campaigning to off hours, on nights and weekends, and would separate the duties and the expenses. He said then he hopes Baucus will do the same.

State Democratic Chairman Kelly Addy criticized Rehberg, saying the lieutenant governor "is constantly breaking his promise to Montanans not to campaign when he's supposed to be doing the job they elected him to do."

Rehberg will be honored at two fund-raising
